

Classroom Support via Zoom with the BIST Team

Collaboratively taught by a pair of consultants with more than 35 years of K-12 experience collectively, this course is a great fit for:

- Veteran teachers who are looking for new tools to manage the changing needs of today's students
- Teachers new to the profession, early in their career, or changing grade levels
- Instructional Coaches, Instructional Leaders and/or mentor teachers attending side by side with their mentees

- Keeping expectations high, and what to do when students don't rise to the challenge

Session 6: Reflect and Plan

April 12, 2027

- Identifying pain points for growth next year
- Closing loopholes and strengthening skills next year

Each session will be offered at 3:00-4:00 PM & 4:15-5:15 PM Central Time, and will use the same Zoom link each time. The 3:00 session will be led by a consultant with a secondary focus; the 4:15 will be led by a consultant with an elementary focus. Both consultants will be present at all sessions, so all levels will be covered. Join the time that best suits your needs.

Cost for the series: $150 (member schools), $200 (non-member schools)

Registration: online at BIST.org

- By registering online, you will have access through your account to the recordings of each session, as well as an email reminder of each session a few days prior, accompanied by the Zoom link.
